When Experience and Qualifications Matter

YOU make the choice. What do YOU want in a Supreme Judge?

The Conservative Party interviewed all 10 candidates for State Supreme Court Judge. The following candidates were chosen based on experience and qualifications, they are your best choice. Two of these candidates were rated “highly qualified.” These four candidates will bring a commitment of integrity, honesty and fairness to the court

Don't let someone else make your choice — Vote November 8th

Judge Charles Merrell

Judge Charles Merrell — The only candidate that has served as a full time Judge. He has been an acting Supreme Court Justice since 2007. Judge Merrell has presided over County, Surrogate and Family Courts. Judge Merrell has been a Judge in Lewis County since 2003. He was the Lowville Town and Village Justice from 1999-2003

Patrick MacRae

Patrick MacRae — A seasoned attorney with over 30 years of trial and litigation experience in New York State. This wealth of experience qualifies him to maintain the standards of excellence expected of our courts. He has long standing connections to the communities throughout Central and Northern New York,

Judge James McClusky

Judge James McClusky — As a town judge, he has exhibited the temperament necessary to insure that those that appear in the court are heard and treated fairly. Over the last 22 years Jim has practiced law in each of the six counties encompassing the Fifth Judicial District and currently has offices in three of the counties.

John Stone

John Stone — serves as the confidential law clerk to Supreme Court Justice James P. Murphy. John is engaged in all aspects of civil law pending before the Court. He is an annual guest lecturer for the Bar Association on the issue of civil motion practice in Supreme Court. He directly supervises and mentors law students at SU College of Law
